

ECCLESIA DOMESTICA

WHO ARE WE?

Ecclesia Domestica is a Latin phrase which signifies “The Domestic Church” or “the church in the home”. The Christian family is the first cell of the life of the Universal Church! Our mission is to facilitate retreats where you can celebrate the Sacraments, including the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Reconciliation. Join with other women in prayer such as the Most Holy Rosary, Angelus, Liturgy of the Hours, Chaplet of Divine Mercy and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Grow in faith through large group and small group sessions, and have ample time for individual prayer and reflection. Additionally, each retreatant is offered private spiritual direction with a priest or deacon. These features all come together to form a wonderful opportunity to grow in your Catholic faith!

“From Mary, we learn to trust even when all hope seems gone. From Mary we learn to love Christ, her Son.”

FROM A HEART IMMACULATE COMES LOVE WITHOUT EFFORT

There was a time when all was right, all was in order, and all was love. Then, sin entered the world, and with it came anger, envy, betrayal, mistrust, hatred, and pain. The first casualty of sin is love, but at the same time, love is also the antidote. It is no mistake that Jesus left us with the commandment to "Love one another, as I have loved you."

Yet in a world so focused on the cult of self, where selfishness is considered admirable, the ability to love without counting the cost has become lost. Agape love, true, self-sacrificial, self-giving love, is hard to find, and hard to give. Do we really have it in us anymore, to love without effort?

In the Blessed Mother we have the perfect example of what it means to follow Jesus, and in her Immaculate Heart, we have the perfect example of what it means to love without effort. Despite the sword which pierced her heart, she never lost hope, she never embraced bitterness, never lost her ability to love. Even now she pours out that love upon us, without effort, without restraint.

To love with the love of Jesus Christ means holding nothing back, nothing in reserve, pouring out ourselves completely for others. Mary invited the children at Fatima to embrace her Immaculate Heart saying "My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God." For God is love, and so is Mary's Immaculate Heart. The heart of a mother, Her heart for her son.
